Proudly waves old West High's emblem,
Black and orange fair,
Floats triumphant in the breezes
No dishonor there.
Student days have fondest memories
Comrades here we stand,
As our troth to alma mater
Pledge we hand in hand.
— West High's Alma Mater

Foreword

The primary goal of a high school education is the realization of the full potential of each student in all areas of living. A most important aspect of this process is learning to work together to achieve this common goal. As we participate in classroom work, club activities, and sports, we develop an understanding of ourselves in relation to the world around us, and we discover the value of teamwork and co-operation. As expressed in the Alma Mater, we pledge ourselves to work together for a better school, a better community, and a better world. The 1966 Occident attempts to depict West High students as they share the experience of becoming adults.

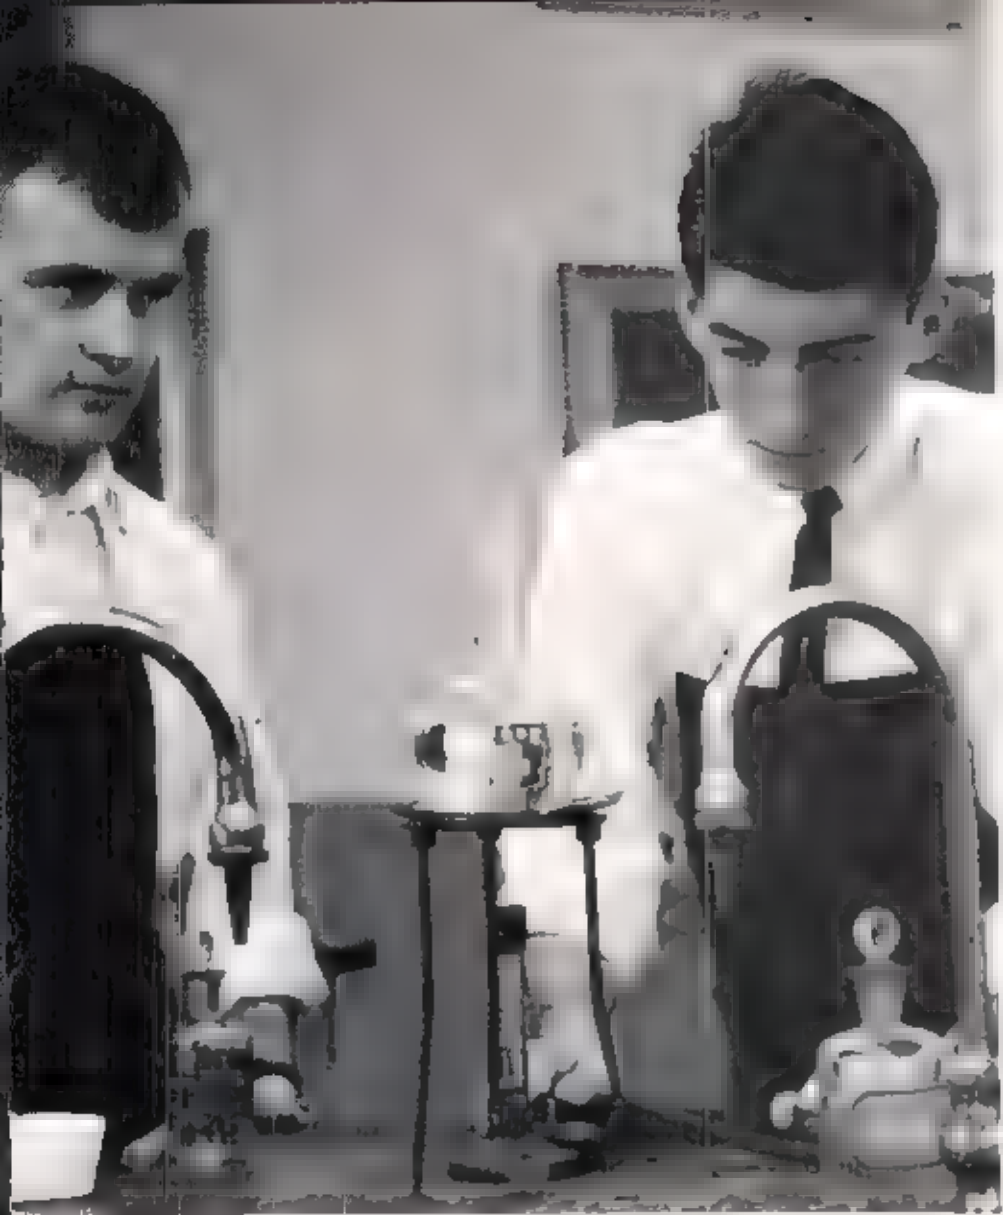

— The Editors

Dedication

The 1966 Occident is dedicated to Miss Mary A. Barnum. Since her graduation from Nazareth College in 1959, Miss Barnum has been a competent and dynamic member of the West High faculty. In her English classes, students develop their reasoning and judgment by analyzing themes, writing character studies, and participating in lively discussions, and they improve their ability to express themselves with the aid of Miss Barnum's zany grammar and vocabulary tests. Her ability to help students with any personal or scholastic problem, willingness to devote time to class and extra-curricular activities, frankness, and exceptional wit and sense of humor are all reasons why Miss Barnum is admired and respected both as a teacher and as a person.

Junior Prom

After weeks of preparation and anticipation, "Blue Hawaii," the 1965 version of the Junior Prom, was held on May 28. Carl Dengler and his eleven-piece orchestra provided the music, while palm trees, a sparkling fountain, and pineapples helped to create a Hawaiian atmosphere. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of Shari Bradley, queen of the prom.

One-Act Play Contest

The fourth annual one-act play contest featured plays by the faculty, and the freshman, junior and senior classes. The freshman play, directed by Mr. Bohrer, was awarded the contest trophy. This production, "Some of My Best Friends," was concerned with today's religious and racial prejudices. The junior class changed the mood of the evening with "His Mama's Boy," which related the experiences of a science fiction writing teen-ager in an anti-science fiction community. Mr. Vianese was director. The senior class climaxed the competition with a play called "The Elbow Club." The senior play, directed by Miss DeBacy, pointed up a high school senior's responsibility to set an example for the underclassmen of his school. The evening was completed with the faculty presentation of "The Plot to Assassinate the Chase Manhattan Bank." The play, though not in competition, was one of the highlights of the evening.

Club Activities

Clubs provide an opportunity for students to join others who have similar interests. They give valuable service and also help to promote participation in school activities. In addition, clubs have presented various assemblies designed to publicize their activities and attract new members. This year the different clubs became actively involved in fund-raising projects that included car washes, baked foods sales, and candy sales.

Fall Weekend

West held its fourth annual Fall Weekend October 29 and 30. The coronation of junior Kathi Corona opened the weekend in a Friday afternoon assembly. A dance at the school that evening featured the Young Savages. The following morning the last-minute touches were put on parade cars and floats, and the parade marched off down Arnett Boulevard to the athletic field. The game against Marshall was exciting, but resulted in a loss for the Occidentals. During half-time, a trophy was presented to class president Dale Yarger for the sophomore float, "The Pink Panther," and a drum and bagpipe band from Scottsville performed. Saturday night, Theta Hi-Y sponsored a dance at the Arnett Y featuring the Overlords. The weekend was very successful, despite a small amount of snow, and everyone is looking forward to a bigger and better Fall Weekend next year.

Hootenanny

Due to the rousing success of last year's hootenanny, West High held a second hootenanny on the evening of January 21. Sponsored by the Peace Corps Club, the hootenanny featured groups from Nazareth College, Eastridge, Greece Olympia, Aquinas, and Marshall, as well as West's own Jug Band, West Side Singers, and Sherrie Loavenbruck. The Dirty Shames trio won first prize in the competition which was judged by Miss Petersen, Miss Cox, and Miss Ross.

Winter Weekend

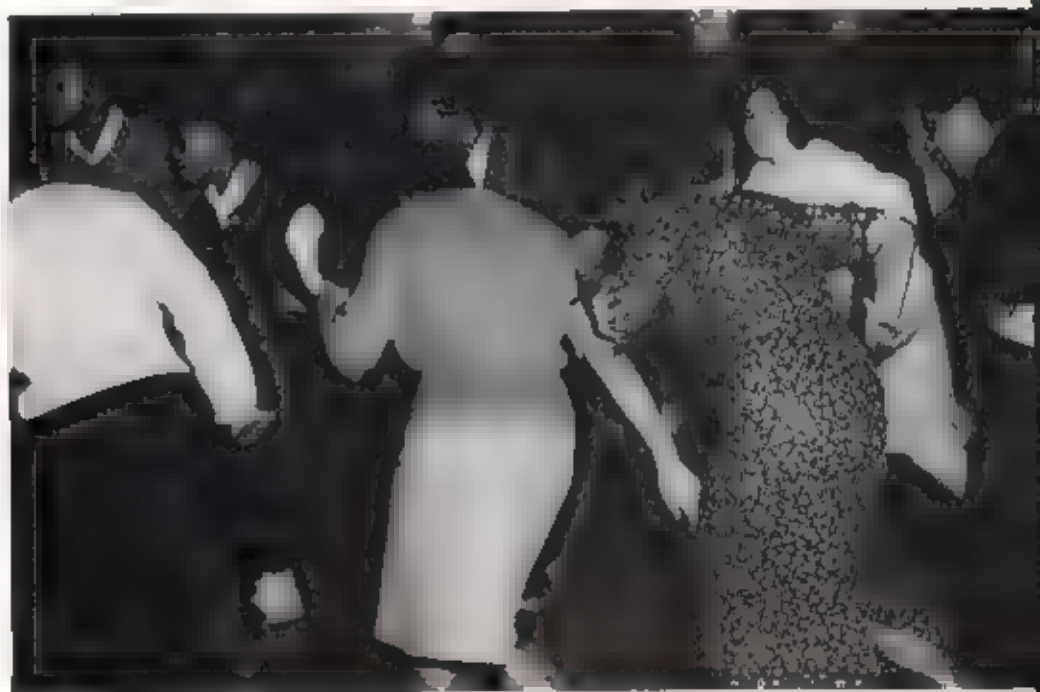

West High's Winter Weekend took place on February 11 and 12 and featured activities to interest every student. The weekend opened with a home basketball game against Marshall on Friday afternoon. Friday night, the "Battle of the Bands" featured the Overlords, the Entertainers, and the Laymen. The Overlords received the contest prize. Saturday morning there was roller skating at Olympic Park. The weekend closed with another basketball game with McQuaid. The Winter Weekend was, once again, a success.

Christmas

A combined program of the choir, orchestra and drama class opened the Christmas season on the evening of December 16. The program included carols, orchestral Christmas numbers, and two plays by the drama class. In an assembly the next day, Santa Claus presented No. 19 School kindergarteners with gifts purchased by the individual homerooms. The children showed their appreciation by singing some of the songs they had learned in school. Once again seniors enjoyed the privilege of decorating the Christmas trees, which served as an appropriate setting for caroling by members of the Senior Choir. Holiday celebrations were highlighted by an assembly presented by the music department on December 21.

This year's commissioners were Norma Polizzi, social welfare; Betty Harmon, music; John Tulloch, athletics; Pat Lamb, publications; and Valerie Rogers, assemblies.

House of Representatives

The House of Representatives, the legislative body of the student government, consists of student representatives chosen from each homeroom. Seventh Grade

This past year the seventh and eighth grades have become familiar with West High and made strides to assume eventual leadership of the school. This fact was evident through their conscientious support of all school activities and their efforts to establish class treasures to make future events possible. This was accomplished through baked food sales sponsored by the classes of '70 and '71.

This year the freshman class, sponsored by Miss Ivanick and Mr. Baker, became a vital part of the school by accepting its responsibilities within the Student Association. They presented the play "Some of My Best Friends," which was the winner of the one-act play contest. With funds raised by baked food sales, the freshmen sponsored a dance in the spring.

Sophomores

Robert Boyer, Boys' Social Chairman, Cheth Dunham, Girls' Social Chairman; Dale Yarger, President, Donald Larter, Vice-President; Ann Taylor, Secretary.

The sophomores have proven to be an energetic and hard working group. With the guidance of Miss Turu and Mr. Raymond, the class won the Fall Weekend float contest with its entry, "The Pink Panther." In order to finance the Ballot Ball, the sophomores had many money-making projects in the spring.

Patricia Dalberth, Secretary, Ray Kruse, President; William Kelly, Boys' Social Chairman; Kathy Corona, Vice-President; Linda Carson, Girls' Social Chairman.

The junior class, under the guidance of Miss Lux and Mr. Murphy, accomplished much in the past year. They sponsored the traditional candy sale, baked food sales, and car washes in order to finance the event of the year, the Junior Prom.

The National Honor Society recognizes those students who not only are scholastically outstanding, but who exemplify character, leadership and service. Twice each year juniors and seniors are inducted into the society in a candlelight ceremony witnessed by family, friends, and student body. The officers, David Ulrich, Diane Lefebure, and Monika Deutscher, strove this year to help the society effectively fulfill its pledge.

Wide Horizons

Once each month Wendy Sprout and Norma Polizzi have a chance to broaden their knowledge in various areas of study. For two hours they meet at Cutler Union to listen to a lecture by a University of Rochester professor and to discuss his specialty with him. To qualify for the honor of being in this program, a student must be recommended by his teachers. He must also either be in Honor English or have maintained a B average in English. Miss Gray, the faculty advisor, accompanies our two student representatives to their meetings.

"Whom the gods love die young," was said of yore,
And many deaths do they escape by this:

The death of friendship, love, youth, all that is,
Except mere breath.

The long-awaited arrival of new jackets made the job of the Corps much more pleasant.

The Occident News is West High's own journalistic enterprise. The paper keeps students informed about school events, publishes opinions from interviews with students and teachers, presents news of athletic competitions, and prints schedules of club activities. This year, editor, Sue Nowack, and advisor, Mr. Glennon, endeavored to make the Occident an even more effective voice of the students.

The Optimates, West High's Latin club, began its year of activities with the election of officers Wendy Sprout, Norma Polizzi, James Branigan, Nancy Freehafer, Frances Jordan, and Anne Winchell. In October prospective members were auctioned to old members as "slaves," and then, attired in genuine Roman togas, the new members were initiated. Advised by Mr. Vianese, the club also produced a play in Latin, drafted a constitution, and replenished its treasury by a system of dues.

This year the French club, Les Aspirants, sponsored several money-raising projects to finance a French-style banquet. Initiation of new members included the traditional swim in the Seine and jump off the Eiffel Tower. Jocelyne Furet, teenage diplomat from France, served as president, assisted by officers Mike Reynolds, Karen Lee, Suzanne Ritson, Daryl Latham, and faculty advisor, Mr. Overcash.

Highlights of the year for La Confradia Occidental, the Spanish club, included a Christmas party, a baked food sale, the "Hall of Horrors" initiation, and election of officers Mary Ann Greer, Linda Carson, Mike Volpe, and Diane Bostic. The club also held a banquet and monthly meetings featuring a speaker, movies, or discussions. Mrs. Carter was faculty advisor.

FTA, organized for students anticipating teaching careers, provided a valuable service to the school this year. Members of the club were assigned to help teachers by typing ditto masters and correcting papers, and they served as guides at the Open House in February. Under the leadership of the advisor, Miss Cox, and officers Veronica Ware, Nancy Freehafer, Maureen Hazell, and Karen Lee, FTA held a candy sale and visited several nearby teachers' colleges.

With Miss Pruner as advisor and Gloria Rouvina, Kathy Simmons, Janice Horsey, and Karen Rickard as officers, the club also partially sponsored Peter Clark's summer tour of Germany by selling calendars and baked foods. Band

The distinctive sound of the West High School band adds rhythm and spirit to many school activities. Under the direction of Mr. Henry Osborne, the band is always on hand at assemblies and inspires the Occidentals on the gridiron. The band rehearses three times a week and has a well balanced repertoire of classics rewritten for band, Sousa marches, concert marches, and pieces by contemporary composers. One of the musical highlights at West is the annual spring concert, which gives the band a chance to display its many talents.

Tom Banister goes for the ball

The 1965 football team began the season with an experienced line and high hopes for success. Under the fine coaching of Mr. D'Ambrosia and Mr. Cummings, the Occidentals posed a challenge to all comers but ended with the disappointing record of 2 wins and 6 losses.

Standouts on this year's team included mighty Allan Burke, whose efforts as fullback spearheaded the West attack. Center Tom Caruso gained recognition by being elected to the Democrat and Chronicle All-Scholastic First Team and the Times-Union Second Team. Teammate Burke received a second team berth, and aggressive linemen John Deutsch and Larry Wilson received honorable mentions. Dave Foote, who switched to quarterback this year, gained experience as the year progressed and became an important asset to the Oxmen cause.

The little Oxmen, under the direction of Mr. Nacca and Mr. Dunbar, compiled a 2 win-4 loss record. Despite their record, they exhibited great promise. Barney Suth, with his amazing running, captured his team's vote as the most promising back, and hard-hitting Raleigh Cummings bulldozed his way to the most promising lineman position. With such fine talent coming up in West's football ranks, we should have impressive victories in the future.

Cross-Country

N. Kuyt, R. DeFrank, D. Swift, T. Tarbell, J. Peasley, J. Moriarity, D. Yarger, Coach Raymond.

One of the most demanding of all high school athletic events is cross-country. The Cobbs Hill meets pit contestants against a two and a half mile course of footpaths, hills and woods. Mr Raymond spent the season rebuilding the team. Although almost winless in their triangular meets, the team's spirit showed great promise for future seasons. Nico Kuyt was voted "most valuable runner" and James Moriarity was voted "most improved runner" by their teammates.

Chul Debyah, voted "most valuable player," was selected for the All-Scholastic second team and Gordon Moore received an honorable mention. Brad Puff was voted "most improved player" by his teammates. With many experienced players returning next fall, West can look forward to many promising seasons.

The 1966 varsity basketball team, coached by Mr. D'Ambrosia, had an unfortunate season as far as winning was concerned. The team, after losing many close games, "broke loose" to defeat Jefferson 91 to 64. Dan Walters, Larry Wilson, and Earle Williams led the team in scoring while Jim Falbo and Barney Stith directed the Occidental attack. Many underclassmen are gaining valuable experience this year and will be a force with which to cope in future seasons.

The Varsity Club is composed of those junior and senior athletes who have earned two varsity letters and are able to maintain minimal scholastic averages. The purpose of the club is to stimulate interest and participation in sports activities. This year they sold tickets at athletic events and sponsored the fall, winter, and spring sports banquets.

This year's varsity wrestling team was led by Roger Seyba, Tom Robinson, and the Mendoza brothers, Poncho and Butch. Plagued by the loss through graduation of some of the heavier mat men, the team lost many of its meets by very slim margins. With the addition of more men to the squad and the continuation of Mr. Nacca's fine coaching, a successful future on the mats is certain.

Strong performances by young trackmen will insure a winning season next year.

Tennis

D. Hollis, R. Wittmeyer, N. Butkov, Mr. Carey

The tennis team, coached by Mr. Carey, compiled a commendable 4-win, 2-loss, 2-tie record in league play and a 5-win, 4-loss, 3-tie record overall. The team was led by seniors Jim Moore and Dave Hollis, who scored many valuable points.

A strong West High golf team overpowered all opponents and finished the season in first place. The team, coached by Mr. Cummings, worked out daily on the Genesee Valley links. With most of the team returning, West should send another strong team onto the greens again next season.

Never before has it been so necessary to know how to get a job

Now comes the time of decision for your career ahead. It will probably be one of the most important decisions you will be called upon to make. Fortunately, you live in a land where freedom of choice and opportunity are almost unlimited.

Of course, anyone's "first job" is to get his basic education. Congratulations to you who get this job well done. Now, how about the next step? Career opportunities in Rochester, with its many and diverse industries, commercial organizations and professions, should interest almost any student. Most Rochester companies are recognized for their high standards and advanced technology. It follows that standards for employment are high too — and a good education tops the list.

An employer knows what kinds of people he is looking for. The student ready for a career should have an equally good idea of what he or she is looking for. Consulting with parents, counselors, friends, and with employers themselves will reveal what kinds of positions are available in what kinds of organizations.

Evaluating your abilities and appraising your readiness for the career of your choice is the key to your future. There is no door it cannot unlock — when the key fits!

Courage to risk

There is, in Xerox, a character which gives it a high potentiality to do, to accomplish.

Call it esprit—call it enthusiasm—call it willingness to change, to create, to innovate. Call it what you will . . . it is born of the knowledge that great opportunities are given to those who are willing to take advantage of the new, but are willing also to accept great risk in doing so.

At Xerox, we have deliberately sought to attract those who are inspired by these qualities.
